

RE Policy

Acts of Worship

A school assembly is held each day; these are of a mainly Christian but non-denominational nature. This is a requirement of the Education Reform Act 1988 which requires that there must be a collective act of worship each day for each child. If you wish your child to be withdrawn from religious worship or religious education, because of your religious beliefs, please inform the Principal in writing.